FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002 LB 1303

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Sure.

SENATOR BROMM: Would this...would there be any sunset on the...on future amendments to the bill?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, how...what do you mean by that? Oh, you mean do I have any amendments after this one?

SENATOR BROMM: (Laugh) Are...are we arriving at the end of the trail?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This is the end of the trail as far as I'm concerned.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because I told you I would look in my office at the things that I thought were significant. And any of the other items I would just leave them alone because they are not that consequential.

SENATOR BROMM: I'll...I'll offer to put my light on and speak while you draft the amendment, and then when you get her filed you can take it up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I have to ask you one more thing but I'm going to ask you that while we're considering the amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. And, you know, bills like this really could use a lot of time and certainly we have used a lot of time. But in a session such as this, we just simply don't always have an opportunity...we don't have an opportunity to go into these things in the depth that we are with this particular bill at this point in time. So I'm certainly aware of the suggestion and I'm okay with it. I don't know that the program should be unavailable to somebody that has an expired registration. I would point out that we still do have a statute that Senator Bourne was trying to address that would have eliminated the ten-year grace period...the ten-day
